The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday December 7, to Tuesday December 10, 1751.

Whitehall, December 10, 1751.

ADditional Article to the antient Treaties ſubſiſting between His Majeſty and the Dey and Government of Algiers, agreed to by the preſent Dey, Mahomet, and His Majeſty's Plenipotentiaries the Honourable Auguſtus Keppel, and Ambroſe Stanyford, Eſq; His Majeſty's Agent and Conſul General at Algier.

THAT all Packets or Expreſs-Boats, bearing His Britannick Majeſty's Commiſſion, which ſhall be met by any of the Cruizers of Algiers, ſhall be treated with the ſame Reſpect as His Majeſty's Ships of War, and all due Reſpect ſhall be paid to His Majeſty's Commiſſion; and both at Meeting and Parting, they ſhall be treated as Friends: And if any of the Algerine Cruizers commit the leaſt Fault or Violence againſt them, the Captains or Raizes ſo offending, ſhall, on their Arrival at Algiers, and proper Complaint being made of them, be moſt ſeverely puniſhed, without admitting of their Excuſes. Dated at Algiers the 3d Day of June 1751, and in the Year of Hageira 1164, the 20th Day of the Moon Regil.

Whitehall, November 2, 1751.

WAlter Titley, Eſq; His Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Court of Denmark, has tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State, the following Account from Copenhagen, dated the 30th of October N. S. It having been found neceſſary to change the Situation of the Fire kept hitherto upon a Sand-Bank, at the Point of Jutland, called Schagen, for the Uſe of Mariners; His Daniſh Majeſty has ordered Notice thereof to be given to the Publick, and, in Purſuance of that Order, the proper Officers ſent an Advertiſement, accompanied with a Memorial, to Mr. Titley, deſiring him to tranſmit the ſaid Advertiſement to England, for the Information of the Britiſh Traders to the Baltick; of which Advertiſement the following is a Tranſlation.

Advertiſement.

WHereas the Sand-Hill at Schagen, upon which a Fire has been kept hitherto in the Night Time for the Direction of Ships ſailing through the Cattegat, is almoſt waſhed away by the Sea; and there is now erected, inſtead of the ſaid waſting Sand-Hill, a Tower of Sixty Four Feet high, ſtanding further within the Land at the Diſtance of Eight Hundred Feet from the Sand-Hill, and Four Hundred Feet more towards the North; upon which Tower the Fire is to be kept for the Future, and to commence on the $\frac{\text{21ſt of January, O. S.}}{\text{1ſt of February, N. S.}}$ in the enſuing Year 1752: Therefore, by Order of the King of Denmark, Norway, &c. this Notice is given to the Publick, to the End that Mariners, being duly apprized of the Alteration beforehand, may regulate their Courſe through the Cattegat accordingly.

Should the foreſaid Sand Hill happen to be deſtroyed and carried quite away, by any violent Storm, before the Time abovementioned, in that Caſe a Fire will immediately be lighted up upon the Tower, inſtead of that which has hitherto burnt upon the Sand-Hill.

Copenhagen, from the Office of his Majeſty's Privy-Purſe, the 25th October 1751.

Conſtantinople, Nov. 5. The Plague is now entirely ceaſed in this Capital, and the Grand Signior, the Miniſters of the Divan, and moſt of the Foreign Miniſters, are come to Town. According to our laſt Advices from Perſia, the Prince of Georgia continues to make great Progreſs in Ghilan, having already made himſelf Maſter of the greateſt Part of that Province.

Petersbourg, Nov. 19. Every Thing is now ready for the Empreſs's Departure for Moſcow, and to all Appearance it will take Place as ſoon as a ſufficient Quantity of Snow ſhall have fallen, and the Sledging Ways are become open. A few Days ago a private Gentleman was beheaded here for having betrayed the Secrets of this Court; and his Accomplices, after having been puniſhed ſeverely with the Knout, were baniſhed to Siberia. The Weather is ſet in ſo very cold here for theſe three Days paſt, that not only Foot Paſſengers, but even Carriages have already begun to croſs the Neva. Several young Gentlemen, of the beſt Familles in this Empire, have lately obtained her Imperial Majeſty's Leave to go to different different Universities in Europe, to prosecute their Studies.

Cremona, Nov. 24. The Treaty lately concluded between the Empress Queen our Sovereign, and the King of Sardinia, is made publick, and tends principally to establish a lasting Friendship between those Powers, for the Preservation of their respective Territories in Italy. By this Treaty each others Subjects are to have free Liberty of carrying all Sorts of Goods and Merchandizes up and down the River Po, upon paying certain Rates and Duties, which are now greatly reduced to what they were before.

Stockholm, Nov. 26. The Russian Minister has declared to this Court, that the Empress his Mistress having nothing more at Heart than to cement the good Understanding that at present subsists between the two Courts, was ready to appoint Commissaries for regulating the Limits of Finland, which were left undetermined by the Treaty of Abo. And 'tis said the King, who is in the same good Disposition with the Empress of Russia, immediately communicated this Declaration to the Diet, who, after having examined it in a secret Committee, had acquainted his Majesty, that they left that Affair entirely to his own paternal Attention, and doubted not but that he would take such Resolutions therein as he should judge best for the Good of the Kingdom.

Copenhagen, Nov. 30. A few Dags ago two new Gallies were launched here in their Majesties Presence, and named the Frederickſdhall and Frederickstadt; and his Majesty has ordered four others to be built in the Port of Frederickshaven in Norway. Yesterday being the Queen Dowager's Birth-Day, who then entered into the 62d Year of her Age, the same was celebrated at Court as usual.

Vienna, Dec. 4. Yesterday there was a numerous Appearance of the Nobility and Gentry at Court for the first Time since their Imperial Majesties came to Town from Schonbrun for the Winter. We are assured that the Difficulties which retarded the Affair of the Investitures are entirely removed; and that, in Consequence thereof, several Princes are disposed to send Commissaries hither with Full Powers to receive, in their Names, the Investitures of their Estates from the Hands of his Imperial Majesty.

Breslau, Dec. 4. The King has appointed M. Carmer, heretofore Director of the Regency of Oppelen, to be Director of the Regency of this City; and M. Averdyk, heretofore Councillor of the Regency of Glogau, is appointed Director of the Regency of Oppelen in his Room. We have received here an Account of the Death of Count Nostitz, Chamberlain and Privy Councillor to the King of Poland, at his Seat at Damnitz near Steinau, in the 71st Year of his Age.

Dantzick, Dec. 5. Count Malachowsky, Great Chancellor of Poland, is arrived here from Warsaw, with the King's Commission for terminating the Differences that have subsisted for a long Time between the Magistrates and Citizens of this City.

Berlin, Dec. 7. The Duke and Dutchess of Brunswick, accompanied by their eldest Daughter the Princess Caroline, and a numerous Retinue of Gentlemen and Ladies, arrived at Potzdam on Saturday last, and were received by the King with great Marks of Affection. Yesterday Morning the Prince of Prussia, and the Princes Henry and Ferdinand, arrived here from Potzdam, and were soon after followed by the King, and the Duke and Dutchess of Brunswick and their Daughter. The same Afternoon the Duke and Dutchess were presented to the two Queens, the Princess of Prussia and the Princess Amelia, by the Barons de Willich and Lentulus, whom his Majesty has appointed to attend them during their Stay at this Court.

Cologn, Dec. 10. Yesterday 300 Recruits marched from hence in order to complete the Imperial Regiments quartered in Luxembourg, and other Places in the Low Countries. A few Days ago two notorious Highwaymen, dressed in the Habits of Clergymen, who have committed several Robberies in this Neighbourhood, were apprehended and committed to Prison at Duytz.

Hague, Dec. 16. The Honourable Joseph Yorke, Esq; Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Great Britain to this Court, arrived here this Afternoon. Major General Creutnach has taken the usual Oaths before the Council of State, in Quality of Colonel of the Regiment of Artillery, in the room of Lieutenant-General Glabbeck, who, on Account of his Age, has obtained from her Royal Highness the Princess Governante, his Dismission from that Employment.
